ORDER:

Government is committed to ensure that each villages/GP in the State is completely covered with envisaged basic facilities on a saturation basis. Towards fulfilling this holistic agenda, the government has taken up an integrated approach for saturation of certain assurances at village and family level through the themes of Kutumba Vikasam and Samaja Vikasam. The government has committed to align its development and welfare agenda to the Kutumba Vikasam, Samaja Vikasam and Sustainable Development Goals(SDG) framework for global benchmarking while taking action at gram panchayat/ village levels.

2. The government after detailed discussions, decided to create a system of 'ten star rating' to foster competition and to recognise and rate the availability of certain infrastructure and saturation of certain welfare provisions, at the Gram Panchayat level (inclusive of all villages/habitations under its jurisdiction) on the following ten criteria:

1. IHHLs,
2. Household Electricity connections,
3. Household Gas connections,
4. Private water tap connections,
5. Solid Waste Management,
6. Road Connectivity
7. Fibre net connectivity
8. Assured income of Rs. 10,000 per month to all households,
9. Education (Zero drop out rate and School Infrastructure – Building Toilet, drinking water, Furniture, Fibrenet Connectivity)
10. Health & Nutrition (Immunisation, Institutional Deliveries, & nutrition coverage)

3. The Panchayat Raj and Rural Development department is hereby authorised to accord star rating to each Gram Panchayat, based on the above criteria, in coordination with the other departments concerned. The Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department shall issue detailed guidelines to operationalise this scheme and discuss the star rating during the Janmabhoomi Maa Vooru programme being held across the state from 2nd January, 2018 to 11th January 2018.

4. This Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department and other departments concerned shall establish a robust integrated database in public domain to maintain integrity and transparency of the star rating exercise

5. The Panchayat Raj and Rural Development department shall take immediate necessary action in this regard.
